

GUIDELINE-01 ELIGIBILITY FOR APPOINTMENT AS A MEMBER OF PEAC

PREAMBLE

Members of the PEAC Governance Committee are responsible for recruiting potential candidates to fill vacant positions of the Membership of the Corporation of PEAC. Candidates will be recruited who support the PEAC vision, mission and values and who possess the qualities, skills and experience required by PEAC. The Governance Committee will consider the need for diversity with respect to gender, language, and geography.

Guidelines for composition of the membership

The membership comprises nine (9) to twelve (12) individuals from the following groups or organizations:

- i. Canadian Physiotherapy Association (1)
 - ii. Program Director or Chair from a Canadian physiotherapy academic program (1)
 - iii. Faculty members from Canadian physiotherapy academic programs (2)
 - iv. The Canadian Alliance of Physiotherapy Regulators (1)
 - v. National Association for Clinical Education in Physiotherapy (1)
 - vi. Entry-level graduate physiotherapist¹ (1)
 - vii. The public (1-2)
 - viii. The Association of Accrediting Agencies in Canada or a member of an agency conducting accreditation of professional education programs (1)
 - ix. Additional Members appointed by the Board depending on needs of the organization (2)

¹ An Entry-level graduate is one who is within three years of graduation at the time of appointment as a PEAC member, and may serve only one three-year term.

All applicants must:

- understand their fiduciary duty to work in the best interest of PEAC, including adherence to the rules of confidentiality and to the Code of Conduct
- agree to act in accordance with policy COUN-03: Communication and Consultation and understand that the primary contacts for external communications are the President, Past-President, and the Executive Director

Applicants from categories (i)-(v) must also meet the following eligibility criteria:

- be nominated and supported by their organization or group to join PEAC
- be connected closely enough with their organization or group to be familiar with their perspective on current issues
- understand that while they are nominated by their organization or group, their role at PEAC is to provide the perspective of that group, not to serve as the group's representative

All applicants must submit:

- a completed application form (FORM-03 PEAC Member Application Form)
- a curriculum vitae
- a statement summarizing their interest in the position
